

CIRAFON TPU Cover for iPad 10th Gen (2022) 10.9" - Black

Sturdy protection with stylish design

Give your iPad 10th Gen (2022) reliable protection with CIRAFON TPU Cover - a durable and flexible case specially designed to fit perfectly on your 10.9-inch iPad. This thin, yet impact-resistant shell effectively protects against scratches, bumps, and everyday wear and tear without compromising the device's slim profile.

Precision and functionality

CIRAFON TPU Cover is carefully crafted with precise cutouts for all ports, buttons, and the camera, ensuring you have full access to all features of your iPad. The shell is made of high-quality TPU (thermoplastic polyurethane) which offers both flexibility and strength, making it easy to put on and take off, while providing an excellent grip.

Practical design with extra features

- Automatic wake-up: The case is equipped with a smart function that wakes your iPad automatically when you open it, and turns it off when you close the lid. This saves battery and provides quick access to your device.
- Adjust to a stand: The front cover can be easily folded into a stable stand, allowing you to use your iPad in both portrait and landscape mode for comfortable viewing and writing.

Maximum protection with minimal bulk

With CIRAFON TPU Cover, you get protection that not only preserves the elegant look of your iPad but also its functionality. The lightweight material provides discreet protection that does not make the device bulky, making it an ideal choice for both work and pleasure.

Style and sustainability in one

The black, minimalist design gives your iPad a timeless look, while the durable material ensures the protection lasts over time. Whether you're using your iPad at home, at work, or on the go, the CIRAFON TPU Cover is the perfect accessory to keep your device in pristine condition.

Perfect accessory

To complement your new TPU cover and give your iPad extra protection, we recommend the Glass Plus Screen Protector for iPad 10th Gen \(2022\) 10.9". Offering superior scratch and impact protection, this high-quality screen protector is the perfect complement to your Cirafon case.
