Product description

Why choose this power strip?

Power Socket 4Xsocket 1.5m Black On/Off Prokord is a compact indoor power strip that gives you four Type F outlets, a 1.5 m cable, and a clearly marked on/off switch. It helps you organise and control power for workstations or meeting rooms, reduces standby consumption, and fits tight spaces thanks to the angled plug.

Power Socket 4Xsocket 1.5m Black On/Off in short:

- 1.5 m cable for flexible placement without needing an extension.
- Built-in on/off switch lets you cut power quickly to all connected devices.
- Angled Type F plug reduces strain and works better in confined wall sockets.
- Intended for indoor use, consider cable routing for permanent installations.

Description

This Prokord power strip distributes mains power safely to up to four devices while keeping setup simple. The on/off switch provides convenient central control for peripherals and chargers, so you can reduce energy use when equipment is idle. The black housing and slim form suit office and IT environments, and the angled plug helps when wall sockets are close to furniture.
