Product description

Why choose this audio cable?

Prokord Audio 3.5mm Male - 3.5mm Male 2.0m gives a reliable, easy way to connect audio devices across your workspace. It extends reach without adapters, reduces connection noise with gold-coloured contacts, and uses metal connector housings for everyday durability. The straightforward plug-and-play design keeps setup quick and predictable, helping you avoid interruptions during calls, presentations, or media playback.

Audio 3.5mm Male - 3.5mm Male 2.0m in short:

- 2 metre length, useful for connecting devices across desks, conference tables, or from a phone to a car stereo.
- 3.5mm male to 3.5mm male connectors for direct analog audio links between phones, tablets, laptops, speakers, and headsets with an aux input.
- Black cable with metal connector housings for a professional look and added wear resistance.
- Gold-coloured contacts visible on the connectors help resist corrosion and maintain a steady signal.
- Check that both devices have a 3.5mm analog jack before purchase.

Product details

This Prokord cable is designed for straightforward, analogue audio connections. Plug it in to route music, system audio, or call sound between two devices without software or configuration. The metal housings and flexible jacket make the cable convenient for everyday use and transport, while the 2.0 metre length balances reach and cable management in office and mobile setups.
