Product description

Why choose this cable?

Prokord Cable DVI-D - DVI-D Single Link 2m Black gives you a dependable, low-complexity way to connect DVI-D displays over a 2 meter run. The cable combines straight male DVI connectors with gold plated contacts, comprehensive foil-and-braid shielding and ferrite cores to reduce interference, while a flexible PVC jacket makes routing and installation straightforward.

Cable DVI-D - DVI-D Single Link 2m Black in short:

- Reliable digital video link for standard DVI-D equipment and short to medium range installations.
- Gold plated contacts and tinned copper conductors for consistent signal transfer and reduced corrosion.
- Ferrite cores and aluminium-foil plus braid shielding help protect against electromagnetic interference.
- Straight male connectors with thumbscrew fastening provide a secure, vibration-resistant connection.
- Consider whether single-link DVI-D meets your bandwidth needs if you require very high-resolution or high-refresh setups.

Product details

This Prokord cable connects a DVI-D output to a DVI-D input, making it suitable for workstation monitors, meeting-room displays and AV racks where a clean digital link is needed. The 2m length gives flexibility without excess slack. Gold plated contacts and robust shielding preserve signal integrity, while the PVC jacket and molded strain reliefs simplify routing and reduce wear. The built-in ferrite cores further suppress interference for more stable video performance.
