Product description

Why choose this sleeve case?

Cirafon Business Nylon Sleeve Work-In helps protect and carry a 15.6 inch notebook with a slim, lightweight profile that reduces bulk on commutes. The durable nylon exterior and secure zipper closure keep your device and accessories organised, while the removable shoulder strap adds carrying flexibility for travel between meetings or on public transport.

Business Nylon Sleeve Work-In in short:

- Slim sleeve that fits laptops up to 15.6 inches, useful for daily commuting and short business trips.
- Durable nylon exterior with a padded compartment to protect your device during routine transport.
- Front zip pocket and two slip pockets for charger, mouse, and small accessories, making organisation easy.
- Removable shoulder strap gives hands-free carrying when you need it.
- Consider that the 20 mm depth is designed for thin laptops, so bulkier devices or laptops with large protective cases may not fit.

Practical details

The sleeve has a notebook compartment sized 405 x 20 x 300 mm, so it accommodates most 15.6 inch laptops while keeping the overall profile compact. The double zipper on the main compartment and the front red zip pocket provide straightforward access. At about 360 g the case stays light in a bag or when carried on its own. The black nylon finish is easy to clean and blends with typical business kit.
