Product description

Why choose this mouse pad?

Voxicon Large Mouse Pad 45x40 cm – For Office & Ergonomic Use provides a stable, low-profile surface that improves cursor control and protects your desk. The generous area supports wide mouse movements for design work and prolonged tasks. A textile top and rubber non-slip base keep the pad in place and reduce interruptions.

Large Mouse Pad 45x40 cm – For Office & Ergonomic Use in short:

- Large 450 x 400 mm area for broad mouse movements and comfortable reach across keyboard and mouse.
- Monochromatic, black and white design keeps the workspace visually calm, with a discreet Voxicon logo in the corner.
- Textile surface tuned for precise tracking with optical and laser mice.
- Rubber non-slip base holds the pad steady on smooth and textured desks.
- 2 mm thickness provides a low profile, consider a separate wrist rest if you need extra cushioning.

Main function and usability

The pad gives a consistent tracking surface for everyday office tasks, detailed editing, and extended desk sessions. The textile top balances smooth glide and control so your cursor responds predictably. The rubber base prevents slipping, which reduces interruptions during repetitive workflows. The surface wipes clean with a damp cloth and mild detergent and helps protect desk finishes from daily wear.
