Product description

Why choose this keyboard and mouse set?

Acutek AMK-201WH is a wired keyboard and mouse set that delivers reliable input for everyday office and administrative work. The full-size Nordic QWERTY keyboard with a numeric keypad speeds data entry and the ambidextrous optical mouse gives steady, predictable tracking. USB-A plug-and-play and a matte ABS finish make the set easy to install and simple to keep clean.

AMK-201WH keyboard and mouse set in short:

- Full-size 104-key Nordic QWERTY keyboard with numeric keypad, suitable for spreadsheets and frequent typing.
- Wired USB-A connection with 1.8 m cables for flexible desk placement and plug-and-play setup.
- ABS keycaps rated for up to 800 million keystrokes, designed for regular daily use.
- Ambidextrous optical mouse, 1000 dpi and 3 buttons, suitable for standard office navigation.
- Note: keys are not silent and the keyboard does not include a wrist rest; consider this if noise level or ergonomic support is a priority.

Main functions and typing experience

The AMK-201WH keyboard provides a familiar three-block full-size layout so you can work without adapting to a compact design. Multimedia and Windows keys put common controls at your fingertips, while adjustable keyboard height helps you tailor the angle for comfort. With 2 mm key travel and a long operating life, the keyboard is intended for sustained daily use in offices, reception areas, and other shared workspaces.

Mouse, build and compatibility

The bundled mouse uses optical tracking and a 1000 dpi sensor for consistent pointer movement across typical office surfaces. Both devices run from USB power and are compatible with Windows systems, making them easy to deploy on standard workstations. The matte black ABS construction resists fingerprints and cleans easily, and the set includes a warranty card and user guide for straightforward setup and support.
